Schedule A – Direct Contributions

This schedule is used for reporting all direct contributions. You must keep a record of all contributors, but for this report you may combine all contributions of $100 or less from individuals and enter this sum as unitemized contributions on the first line below. Any contribution of more than $100 or aggregate during a calendar year from an individual and all contributions from political parties and PAC's must be entered as a separate item (itemized) giving the amount, name, residence address, city and state of the contributor. Any contribution from a federal political committee or political committee organized outside this state shall also include the name and internet website address of the filing office where the committee regularly files. Each type of contributor has their own section for itemization. This schedule may be duplicated if you need more space or you may attach additional sheets of paper.

Campaign Finance Disclosure Statement Instructions

A sample of the campaign finance disclosure form is found in Appendix B of the guide. Additional copies of this reporting form may be obtained from the Secretary of State. Essentially the campaign financial disclosure form requires information on contributions received and expenditures made by the political committee or political party during the calendar year up to the cut off date of the reporting period. The following comments may assist proper completion of the forms.

Campaign finance disclosure statement shall include the following information:

Cover Page (Committee information, statement and signature):

- Political committee or political party name, street address, postal address, city, state, zip code, daytime and evening telephone number, and e-mail address;
- Type of campaign statement (pre-primary, pre-general, mid-year, year-end, amendment, supplement, or termination);
- If a ballot question committee, the ballot question number and whether the committee is for or against the measure;
- The statement shall include a certification that the contents of the statement is true and correct signed by the treasurer of the political committee or political party.

Schedule A (Monetary contributions from individuals):

- The total amount of contributions of one hundred dollars or less in the aggregate from one source received during the reporting period;
- The name, residence address, city, and state of each person contributing a contribution of more than one hundred dollars in the aggregate during the reporting period and the amount of the contribution. Any contribution from any political committee or political party shall be itemized. Any contribution from a federal political committee or political committee organized outside this state shall also include the name and internet website address of the filing office where campaign finance disclosure statements are regularly filed for the committee. If all of the information required is not on file, the political committee or political party may not deposit the contribution;

Schedule A - Continued (Contributions from political organizations):

- Any monetary or in-kind contribution made by the reporting political committee or political party to any political committee, political party, or nonprofit charitable organization shall be itemized;
  - Comment: itemization is required for any contribution from a political committee or political party
